The Widow's Mite

I saw this during the second loan. She was a little old lady. Her face was like a frost-bitten apple. Her eyes were bright. She came into the bank rather timidly. The marble, the flashing brass grille, the bustle, these things troubled her.

She carried a handbag. It was old and worn. She didn't know where to go exactly. But an attendant noticed her and saw her indecision.

"I want to buy a bond," she said, smiling.

Ah, if you could have seen those bills! Ones, twos, fives, almost ready to fall apart. The privations, the self-denials back of those crumpled bank notes!

They gave her her bond. It had a pleasant crinkling sound as she folded it and stuffed it into the old handbag. Then her eyes became hazy. I knew what she was thinking of. The boy over there. God bless her! It wasn't enough that she should give of her flesh and blood. She must have her bond. I know she was reviewing that boy's whole life, from the swaddling clothes to the sinister khaki. In the old days she had picked him up and kissed his hurts. But he was three thousand miles beyond her tender kisses now. Blood of her blood, bone of her bone.

She might have to go without her tea. No matter. She was fighting alongside her boy now. Nothing could rob her of that wonderful feeling. She had not only given him to his country, she had helped to arm him!

Bonds to arm with, to keep them warm, to feed them.

It's up to you and me, neighbor!

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC
I am compelled to insist on the more prompt payment of the bills that are due me by my customers. I appreciate your patronage, my dear friends, but I can't wait forever on the pay. Please do me the kindness to call at your very earliest moment and let me receipt your bill. This means you if you owe me. Henry C. Anderson. 81-1f

BRONCHIAL TROUBLE
Mrs. A. E. Sidenberder, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for a few days all signs of bronchial trouble disappear."

FEARFUL "FLU" STILL RAGING

The sweeping order made by John G. South, president of the State Board of Health, ordering all schools, theaters, churches, picture shows and all other places of public assembly closed on account of the Spanish influenza, which continues to rage, is being adhered to the letter here. The Stanford Graded and High School was closed Monday afternoon and all the schools in the county will close their doors just as soon as the order can reach them. All of the appointments to speak in the Liberty Loan campaign have been cancelled, the churches will not open their doors for any kind of service, Manager Owens of the opera house, says his Temple of Thespies will be dark until the "flu" is gotten under control, and every other gathering of people that requires them to get together in doors will be abolished. Our people have not obeyed the order without a murmur, although on some of them it will work a decided hardship. They should be and are willing to make almost any sacrifice to aid in stopping the spread of the dread epidemic, for they know that the quicker it is combatted the fewer the lives of the people here, in camp and elsewhere will be exposed to the disease, which many of the physicians agree is only a malignant form of influenza. It is an infectious disease, they say and the safest and quickest way to stop its spread is to avoid crowds of all kinds. A great many of the gallant boys who are in training for service over there have died from influenza, the toll of Camp Zachary Taylor alone being nearly 200. Use every precautionary measure in helping to stamp out the disease which is proving so costly to human life and stand like a man any little privation or hardship the order of the State Board of Health may require. In fine, be as patriotic in your effort to stop its spread as you have been in buying bonds, war stamps, and contributing to the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other such splendid funds and all will be well. The length of time it will be necessary to keep the schools and the public places closed will greatly depend on the effort made in trying to stop the spread of the fearful "flu."

"A BOND IN EVERY HOME"

"A Bond in Every Home" is a slogan that sounds good and which should be a reality before the Fourth Liberty Bond drive has become history. In order to have "a bond in every home" a committee of gentlemen will gather here at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening, Oct. 10th, and will be assigned to various sections of the county in order to spend the whole day selling Liberty Bonds. It is hoped that the gentlemen will bring cars so that they may be used in the noble work and that those who are not the fortunate owners of an auto and who may want to put in the day may be given the opportunity of doing so: R. L. Hubble, J. C. Eubanks, Tom Phillips, T. D. Raney, R. M. Newland, W. M. Bright, J. S. Hocker, George DeBorde, T. A. Rice, T. J. Hill, Jr., Foster, J. H. Woods, R. M. Blackerby, James Williams, James N. Cash, E. T. Pence, J. W. B. McKinney, H. C. Anderson, W. H. Shanks, W. M. Matheny, Charles W. Lovell, J. W. Rochester, Wm. Landgraf, W. O. Walker, W. M. Gooch, John B. Dinwiddie, William McCormack, J. C. Bailey, Marshall C. Newland, T. D. Newland, B. W. Givens, William Severance, T. W. Jones, E. B. Campbell, W. B. Hill, Kelly J. Francis, and many others who may feel that they want to give a day to help float the loan. The cancelling of speaking dates makes it imperative to call on the people in their homes. The bonds must be sold and this is about the only way to reach those who live out of town. Help the gentlemen who are trying to help end the war by raising money for its maintenance, by not only buying a bond when they call on you, but go with them and try and induce your neighbors to buy. Let there be "A Bond in Every Home" and all will be well.

STANLEY CHATS WITH WILSON

A Washington City dispatch says: Gov. Stanley had a conference of half an hour with President Wilson, at which the Kentucky political situation was gone over thoroughly.

The President showed the keenest interest in Gov. Stanley's campaign for the Senate. His respects, and intended staying his respects, and intended staying but a few minutes, but the President appeared so anxious to hear all about conditions in Kentucky that the call lasted far beyond the time originally allotted.

SINCERE GRATITUDE

Mrs. William Bell, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I deem it my duty to express my gratitude for the good Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy did when I had a severe attack of diarrhoea three years ago. It was the only medicine that relieved me."

THE LATE M. D. ELMORE

Stanford's oldest merchant and one of her staunchest and best citizens died when Mr. Moses D. Elmore breathed his last at 3:30 Saturday afternoon. He had been ill a long time and for months it had been known that his recovery was next to impossible. While dropsy was his chief trouble, he had many other afflictions, that would have carried off even a younger or more robust gentleman. He was born in the county on August 16, 1838, and hence was over 80 years of age. He began his business career in Stanford 55 years ago in the store-room where he did business as long as he could attend to it. He occupied that store-room all those years with the exception of a few, when he moved to the room two doors West, now occupied by O. P. Huffman. He never did a great volume of business but he took good care of his customers and never did mortal man have customers who stuck closer to him. Many of them would not trade elsewhere, and when they came to town, Elmore's store was their headquarters. It was said of some of his patrons that if he failed to have certain articles they wanted, they would do without them until he got a supply. Not only was Mr. Elmore Stanford's oldest merchant but he was also its largest owner of town property. He had a half dozen or more store-rooms besides those in the Elmore Block, while he owned nearly a dozen residences of various kinds. Forty-nine years ago he married Miss Mollie Trotter, who survives him. A child was born to them but it died in its infancy. Mrs. I. M. Westerfield, who was Miss Nannie Marrs, a niece of Mrs. Elmore, was raised by them and she was loved by the deceased with the devotion as great as had she been his own daughter. Mr. Elmore was a scrupulously honest man and did right as he saw right. He was a regular attendant at the services of one of the other of the churches here, but not until a month or so ago did he unite with one of them. He was baptized into the Presbyterian church, the church of his wife, by Dr. P. L. Bruce. For some 25 years he had been a director of the First National Bank and was one of its first stockholders. That institution closed Monday afternoon during his funeral out of respect for him who had been one of its best friends in the years that had gone by. Deceased was the last surviving member of a large family. His brothers and sisters who preceded him to the grave are: Newell Elmore, Stanley Elmore, Menefee Elmore and Matt Elmore, and Mrs. F. G. Brady, mother of Mr. W. H. Brady, Mrs. Nailor and Mrs. Parsley. A number

GOT 40 QUARTS OF BOOZE

The fellow who "gets by" Chief of Police George T. Wood and Deputy Sheriff R. T. Lewis with booze can count himself an exception, even if he is not a lucky person in the achievement. Saturday night, or to be more correct, Sunday morning, the two gentlemen were standing on the corner near Salem & Salem's new store casting their eyes windward, when five men in an auto drove up and inquired the road to Crab Orchard. They were given the information and drove off. Mr. Wood saw that one of the two tires that were tied on behind the machine was dragging and he called to the men to stop and fix the reserve tire, or they would lose it. They stopped and on being asked what they had in the machine the officers were told that it was filled with groceries and dry goods. "I expect we had better make a search of the car," remarked Mr. Wood and he and Mr. Lewis got busy. Forty quarts of booze was the discovery they made. The stuff was confiscated and the four men fined $50 each and placed in jail in default of the payment of the fine. They remained in hoc until late Sunday afternoon when a message from the New Trosner Coal Co., in Knox county, asked the release of the men, saying a check for $200 was forthcoming. They were turned loose and went their way rejoicing. The men, who are coal miners for the above concern, went to Lebanon on the train and had secured the auto to go home in a distance of 115 miles, saying $40 for the car. They knew they could not carry all the booze on the train so they tried the auto route, but they were picked up in that. They gave their names as Rhodes, Hemkee, Blakely and Johnson, but whether or not they are real or fictitious, may never be known by the officers here. It was a costly trip for the bunch but the experience may prove valuable to them, and it is certain that they will not again attempt to smuggle whisky through Stanford as long as Messrs. Wood and Lewis are on the job. The driver of the car was permitted to go back to Lebanon, but it is not improbable that a writ will be issued for him on the charge of hauling whisky into dry territory.

SUNDAY MORNING FIRE

Just before Sunday school time Sunday the home of Mrs. G. B. Cooper was discovered on fire and in a reasonably short while the fire ladders arrived on the scene. Neighbors had gathered, however, and had the flames so well under control that it was not necessary to turn the water on the building. Sparks from the cook stove had set fire to the shingle roof on the kitchen and had not the blaze been discovered in time the pretty home would have gone up in flames. The property was insured by the insurance company will repair the damages, which are not great.

Fortunately for Mrs. Cooper, she had an insurance policy. See Jesse D. Wearen today and get you one. No property owner can get along well without carrying a policy on his home.

of nephews and nieces and the good wife are left to mourn the loss of the splendid man. He will be missed in Stanford where he was always interested in everything that was for the betterment of the town, and where he had been a familiar figure for generations. His death is a loss that will be felt by many, but the wife who stood by his side through all those long years, will miss him most and to her every heart in this community goes out in sympathy. May a good God give her strength to bear her irreparable loss and cause her to feel that her loss is for the eternal good. The burial took place in Buffalo Cemetery Monday afternoon after an appropriate funeral discourse at the late home by Dr. Bruce, of the Presbyterian church.

SENATOR JAMES B. MCCREARY

Senator James B. McCreary, whose illness was reported in Monday's paper, died at his home in Richmond at 6 o'clock this morning. He was stricken Saturday morning and his death is believed to be due to a kidney trouble. Speaker of the House at Frankfort for two terms, elected governor in 1875, and again in 1911, 12 years in Congress and six in the United States Senate, he was faithful to every trust and during all of his tenure of office there was never a charge against him. He was one of Kentucky's foremost citizens and the mourners today because he is no more. Mrs. McCreary died a dozen years ago but one son, Robert McCreary, of Chicago, survives the good and grand old man, who had remained on earth over four score years and whose work to make Kentucky bigger and better will not be forgotten by the thousands who today sorrow because he has gone from them.

KINGS MOUNTAIN-WAYNESBURG

I will be at Kings Mountain next Saturday morning, Oct. 12th, from 9 until 1 o'clock for the purpose of collecting your taxes. I will go from there and be at Waynesburg from 1:30 until 4 to wait on all those who wish to get their tax receipts. Be on hand ready to settle with me, please. H. C. Baughman, sheriff. 1t

DAN TRAYLOR SELLS FARM

Dan Traylor has sold his farm again. This makes the third time he has disposed of his good place on Logan's Creek and each time he has made a nice profit. The buyer this time is E. S. Cowan, of Pulaski county, and he is said to have paid a "stiff" price. Hughes & McCarty, Stanford's bustling real estate men, made the deal.

EARLES BUYS ELLIS FARM

Hughes & McCarty, the Stanford real estate hustlers, have sold to W. T. Earles, of Middleburg, for Joe Ellis, his farm of 300 acres between Middleburg and Yosemite, for a sum said to be close to $20,000. The place is known as the Godfrey farm and is one of the very best in Casey county.

JUDGE RICE'S SALE TOMORROW

Look on the second page of this paper and read the sale advertisement of Judge T. A. Rice, and tomorrow, Wednesday, go out and buy some of the live stock he will dispose of. A splendid lot of live stock of all kinds will be sold.

A PRISONER OF WAR

A Washington dispatch says that Archie Popplewell, of Hustonville, has been taken as a prisoner of war by the Germans. He is from the Kidd's Store section, near the Casey line.

Brig. Gen. Charles A. Doyen, commandant of the Marine Training Corps at Quantico, Va., died of influenza.

TO THE CITIZENS OF LINCOLN COUNTY:

Your quota of the Fourth Liberty Loan is $338,350. About $158,000 of this amount has been purchased, leaving a shortage of about $180,350. Before a subscription is complete it must be made in writing on blanks furnished by the Government for that purpose. Many who have verbally subscribed have failed to sign the blanks. They and all who expect to subscribe are urged to go to the banks of their choice at once and complete their subscriptions by signing the blanks, which may be found at any bank. If the amount needed to prosecute the war can not be raised by selling the best securities on earth bearing a good rate of interest until paid, it will be raised by direct taxation, no part of which will be returned. Let's have no slackers, but let every person in the county, regardless of age, sex, or color, do his or her whole duty and the needed amount will be easily raised. Any bank in the county will lend money on six months' time to buy bonds at the same rate of interest that the bonds bear.

Thanking you in advance for prompt action we are,

Respectfully,

J. S. HOCKER, Chairman,

W. H. SHANKS, Assistant Chairman.

WATTERSON PRAISES OLD ENEMY'S EFFORT

The whirligig of time brings many strange changes. Many readers remember the unseemly quarrel of Henry Watterson and Senator Beckham, in which the one denounced the other for everything he could think of. For years the name of Beckham was tabooed in the Courier-Journal, but Beckham voted against woman suffrage, opposition to which has been a hobby of the editor for years and so Mr. Watterson forgives and forgets all and quotes approvingly from the Senator's speech, which he characterizes as "admirable and statesmanlike." The editor must have slipped in, however, when Judge Bingham was not looking, for next day, he tried to kill all of Mr. Watterson's approval, by his criticism of Beckham's speech, which he claimed is an argument of sentiment and not of logic and sharply lecturing him for not standing by the President in everything he thinks necessary to win the war. Thus at one fell swoop Senator Beckham made a foe to praise him and a friend to revile. Politics and war are often and properly similarly defined by a short and ugly word.

Thirty conscientious objectors were sent from Camp Zachary Taylor last week to serve from ten to 20 years each in the Ft. Leavenworth penitentiary. They were sentenced by court martial for refusing to obey the orders of their superior officers to rake or plant grass seed in the base hospital area. They also refused to wear uniform or cook their own meals. In nine cases out of ten the conscientious objector, so-called, is a coward who does not want to defend the flag of his country and prefers prison sentences to army life. They ought to be made to live under such conditions that to shoot and be shot at would be a picnic in comparison.

Senator Norris, who is the republican nominee to succeed himself is a sweet-scented shrub. He voted against the declaration of war, against the draft and against most of the war revenue bills. He said in a speech that the war would put the dollar sign on the American flag and that it was inaugurated on the demand of gold so that the blood of millions might be coined into the metal. If the republicans of Nebraska endorse such a man, no assertion of their loyalty will go. It will be proof positive that they not only are not loyal but in sympathy with the Germans.

According to a sworn statement that is published with the full account of expenditures in the Congressional Record, Mr. Newberry spent of his own and contributed money, $176,000 to win the nomination in the republican primary in Michigan for U. S. Senator. The account shows that he spent from $2 to $2,582.57 with the newspapers taking space in every paper in the state that would accept it. On the other hand, Henry Ford asserts that not one dollar was expended by him or his friends for the democratic nomination nor will he spend a cent to be elected, although he is by far the richest man in Michigan and could easily buy the office if it is to be put up to the highest bidder. The election of Mr. Newberry will be notice to the world that he who puts up the most money knocks the persimmon in that state, but it may not get him anything as the Senate has already taken steps to investigate why it was necessary for Mr. Newberry to spend a fortune to get his name on the ballot.

Newspapers are saddled with more weight, as much as they were carrying. Government officials have increased the price of print paper to 5 1/2 cents in car-load lots, which means a much higher rate to purchasers in smaller quantities. All of us should expect to carry burdens, but it seems that with the increase of everything in price that goes to make up a newspaper and the constant draft on its workmen for the service, the makers of newspapers are catching a little heavier burden than other concerns.

WAR MOTHERS TO HAVE PART

The War Mothers are to have a part in building and supporting a furlough home in France, where soldiers can go when they have a seven-day furlough, for rest and quiet from the roar and turmoil of the battle front. Dues collected will be used in the funds for this home, for charities and for carrying on the work of the organization. A War Mothers Fund has been inaugurated. This fund to be made of Liberty Bonds. It will be built of dimes. Any person may give a dime to this fund, or as much as he wishes. The dimes stacked up into dollars will be invested in Liberty Loan Bonds of the present drive. These bonds will become the financial support of the mothers of American soldiers and sailors. They will be the reserve fund upon which the organization of War Mothers may lean whenever their program of war work rests too heavily upon private purses. The interest from these bonds will be used in win the war efforts until peace comes and in aiding crippled soldiers and needy war mothers in later years. Contributions have already been offered to this fund, several giving their names for $5 each. Ten $5 will buy a $50 bond and 20 $2.50 will buy a $50 bond and $1 contributions will add to the dime contributions and so if we can buy a number of bonds we will be aiding in buying bullets for our boys to go over the top and push the foe a mile or so back toward Berlin. They can not cross No Man's Land if we are slackers over here. Who will help the mothers of the boys who are fighting your battles for you by contributing to this War Mothers' Liberty Loan Fund? Call Mrs. Reinhart, phone 245 and give your name. A list of subscribers will appear in the next I. J.

John Ralph Berry, of Waynesburg, was severely wounded in action in France.

Mr. H. J. McRoberts is confined to his home by illness, this paper regrets to state.

Miss Emily Stevens, of Tampa, Fla., is the guest of Mrs. Walter Forsythe.

Mr. Ollie Murphy and son, George Murphy, are convalescing from typhoid fever.

Mrs. Lewis J. Jones went to Harrogate, Tenn., Monday to visit relatives and friends.

Lewis Mereson, who has been ill with typhoid fever for a long time, is getting well.

Mrs. Edgar Wilkerson spent Saturday in Crab Orchard with her sister, Mrs. Dillon.

Mrs. I. A. Potter has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith in Lexington.

Mr. W. O. Scott, of Covington, spent the week-end with his mother in the Goshen section.

Miss Virginia Bowen has returned to her home at Lancaster, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. K. Warner.

Mrs. G. B. Taylor and Mr. W. P. Turley of Richmond, were here last of the week with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Fouse.

Matthew P. Fenset, of Mt. Vernon, is very sick and a trained nurse from this city was ordered for him this morning.

Mrs. Dan Brock, Miss Mary Pickard Brock and Mrs. Mary Hall, of Richmond, have been guests of Mrs. W. A. Tribble.

Mr. P. H. Cormany left this morning for Bradfordville to look after his farm. He probably will remain there all winter.

The many friends of A. P. Scott, of the Goshen section, will be glad to know he is improving. He has been quite sick with pneumonia.

Mrs. J. M. Kerr was with her husband's parents in Versailles last week. She also visited Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith at Lexington a few days.

Mr. Lee Dunlap, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. Harry Hoeker, of Danville, and John Hoeker, of Hustonville, were here Sunday to see Mrs. G. B. Cooper.

Dr. J. W. Acton of Lancaster, who is in the service and who has been at Marion, Ala., was here Monday. He has been transferred to Fort Barrancas, Fla.

Standers, Walkers, "Gets-It" for Corns

World Has Never Known Its Equal.

"What will get rid of my corn?" The answer has been made by millions—there's only one corn-remover that you can bank on, that's absolutely certain, that makes any corn on earth peel right off like a banana skin—and that's magic "Gets-It." Tight shoes and dancing even when you have a corn need not disturb you if you apply a few drops of "Gets-It" on the corn or callus. You want a corn-remover, not a corn-fooler. You don't have to fool with corns—you peel them right off with your fingers by using "Gets-It." Cutting makes corns grow and bleed. Why use irritating salves or make a bundle of your toe with tape or bandages? Why putter and still have the corn? Use "Gets-It"—your corn-pain is over, the corn is a "gone" sure as the sun rises. "Gets-It" is the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure cure for corns. It is sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Stanford and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by The Penny Drug Store.

Miss Bessie Holtzclaw has returned from Louisville, where she has been taking a business course.

Mrs. S. E. Adams, who has resided in Stanford for some time, has moved to Shelby City, much to the regret of her many friends here.

Misses Cynthia Davidson and Mary Q. Covington, teachers in the Stanford Graded and High School, went to Richmond this afternoon to remain until school again opens.

News comes from Camp Meade, near Baltimore, Md., that Eddie L. Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wade, of Walnut Flat, has recovered from influenza sufficiently to leave the hospital.

Mrs. Stewart Y. Carson, of Stanford, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Azbill, for the convention.

Mrs. Harry B. Hanger, who has been spending several days in town with friends and relatives, returned Thursday morning to her home in Richmond—Richmond Register.

Mrs. E. L. Reinhart received a letter yesterday from her son, William Reinhart, who is at Muscle Shoals, Ala., working in the nitrate plant, stating that he had the "flu," but was getting along all right. He was taken sick Tuesday and was still in bed Saturday when the letter was written. He said they had 3,000 cases of "flu" there.

CONVENTION AT RICHMOND
The eighty-sixth annual convention of the Christian Churches of Kentucky was held at Richmond last week and was attended by about 500 delegates, representing churches as far east as Ashland and as far west as Mayfield. The four sections of the convention representing Educational, Woman's Missionary Societies, State Missions and Bible School Association showed the largest offerings in recent years, and evident progress in spite of war conditions. The programs included many noted speakers of the State and others of national and international fame, among them being Dr. W. E. Macklin, for 30 years a medical missionary to China; Mrs. Anna A. Water, of Indianapolis, a very address gave stirring references to the church's part in the world war.

The hospitality of Richmond is not to be surpassed. Every wish of the delegates was anticipated and nothing was left undone for their comfort and pleasure from first to last. Houses in abundance were thrown open to guests. The dinners served by the Red Cross were superb and largely patronized, the ladies serving from 500 to 600 each day.

It was interesting to note the relation of Stanford to this convention. The host, Rev. Homer W. Carpenter, who was elected president for the ensuing year, is a son-in-law of Dr. J. G. Carpenter. The president of the convention was Rev. Joseph W. Hagin, for several years pastor of the Christian church, having married Miss Roberta Cash, of Lincoln county. Rev. W. E. Ellis, also a former pastor, was chairman of the nominating committee. Rev. Howard J. Brazelton, the present pastor conducted the devotional period of one of the sessions and served on the courtesies committee.

C. E. Tate was a member of the nominating committee of the Bible school section, and Mrs. R. T. Bruce participated in the pageant conducted by the Young Women's Missionary Circles in which an offering of over $1,000 was made toward opening a mission station in Paraguay, South America, to be fostered by young women of Kentucky. Others attending from Stanford were Messrs. C. E. Tate, J. B. Bryan, M. L. Caneer, W. A. Tribble, J. B. Perkins, J. C. Eubanks, W. H. Shanks, O. P. Huffman, Misses Ophelia Lackey and Claudia Carter. The convention selected Hopkinsville as the meeting place of 1919.

WANTS THE OWNER TO CALL
W. C. Ragsdale, who lives on the Lincoln Farm, upon entering his chicken house one day last week found a five dollar bill at the door. He was not able to tell whether any of the chickens had been taken in exchange for the money or whether some man's conscience had led him back to the scene of a former escapade with the ill gotten gain. Whatever may be the cause of the contribution, Mr. Ragsdale would be pleased to have the owner of the five call and get his money.—LaRue County Herald.

WITH THE CHURCHES

"I will preach at McCormack's church next Sunday, at 11 A. M., Sunday school at 9:30," writes Eld. J. G. Livingston.

Rev. E. W. Coakley, pastor of the Double Springs Baptist church at Waynesburg, began a protracted meeting there Sunday. He will do the preaching, complying with a request made by the church members.

The Presbyterian Synod to have been held with the church at Nicholasville, beginning today, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the prevalence of influenza. Dr. P. L. Bruce, Mr. J. B. Paxton and other members of the Presbyterian church had intended attending.

Rev. E. W. Coakley, pastor of the Double Springs Baptist church, at Waynesburg, was here Saturday returning from New Salem, where he had just concluded a splendid meeting assisting the pastor, Rev. K. C. Martin. As a result of Rev. Coakley's preaching 23 have applied for baptism.

The prayer service held at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon was a most impressive and helpful service. It was under the auspices of the Lincoln County Chapter of War Mothers and the object was praise and thanksgiving for the victories won and prayer for the wiping out of the epidemic in camps, protection of the armies and peace. All who attended expressed themselves as being helped by the service and a desire for other such prayer services which doubtless will be held often in the future.

The union services at the Baptist church Sunday night were interesting and pleasing. After a strong sermon by the new pastor, Rev. John C. Taylor, the other pastors of the city gave him and his family a cordial welcome. Each expressed his delight at having Rev. Taylor here and indulged the hope and belief that he will do a great work. They spoke of the splendid relations that have heretofore existed between the pastors of the various Stanford churches and are confident that the coming of Mr. Taylor will bind them even closer together in the great work they are doing and will continue to do. A pleasing feature of the services was a vocal duet by Mrs. W. D. Welburn and Miss Elizabeth Taylor, the latter a daughter of the new pastor.

PEACE TERMS LAID DOWN BY PRESIDENT

The fourteen concrete peace proposals laid down by President Wilson on January 8, 1918, began with the declaration that the days of private interest understandings are gone and that covenants of peace must be reached in the open. Briefly summarized, the other points were:

Absolute freedom of the seas in peace or war except as they may be closed by international action.

Removal of economic barriers among nations associating themselves to maintain peace.

Guarantees of the reduction of armaments to the lowest point consistent with domestic safety.

Impartial adjustment of colonial claims, based upon the principle that the people concerned have equal rights with the governments.

Evacuation of all Russian territory and opportunity for Russia's political development.

Evacuation of French territory and righting of the Alsace-Lorraine wrong.

Readjustment of Italy's frontiers along recognized lines of nationality.

Free opportunity for autonomous development of the peoples of Austria-Hungary.

Evacuation of Rumania, Serbia and Montenegro and guarantees for all the Balkan States.

Security for Turkey's portion of the Ottoman empire and autonomy for other nationalities.

An independent Poland with access to the sea.

A general association of nations for mutual guarantees of independence and territorial integrity to large and small states alike.

SPANISH INFLUENZA

The following letter from the Lake division headquarters of the American Red Cross has been received by the local chapter, which requests that all read and heed the suggestions contained therein:

To all Lake division chapters: In view of the fact that most communities may, in all likelihood, expect a visitation of the epidemic known as Spanish influenza, it has been suggested that all communities organize themselves to meet the situation. It is felt that proper publicity on ways to prevent colds and grippe will do much to prevent the spread of the epidemic, and incidentally, greatly reduce the necessity of moving Red Cross nurses from one community to another except in extreme situations. With this in mind, Dr. William R. Lincoln, division medical advisor, has prepared a few simple precautionary rules for the avoidance of the epidemic and the lessening of its intensity.

1. All colds, however slight, should be treated as possible attacks of influenza. Patients affected by colds should stay at home and sterilize discharges from the nose and throat.

2. Avoid feeling or spreading fear of the disease.

3. Avoid crowds.

4. Regulate bodily functions and keep them so.

5. Avoid the breath or expelled secretions from people suffering from colds.

6. Wash out the nose and throat two or three times daily by a nasal spray or douche and by a gargle with a "normal salt solution" (½ teaspoonful to one glass [8 ounces] clean water).

7. All those in attendance on patients with influenza should wear masks such as are provided by the Red Cross Nursing Bureau.

8. Clothing should be warm and dry. Food simple and easily digested. Drink water freely.

PLEA FOR BOY SCOUTS

Among the agencies enlisted in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive and all other patriotic movements, none are more enthusiastic than the Boy Scouts of America. It may not be generally known that in the three previous campaigns this nation-wide organization of boy power secured one out of every 23 subscriptions, their sales amounting to $206,179, 150. The Stanford troop had a worthy part in the third campaign, selling $10,000 worth of bonds, and eight of the boys receiving the war service medal from the U. S. Treasury.

They are just as anxious to play a large part in the present drive if the citizens of Stanford and Lincoln county will only give them a chance. If you want to encourage patriotism in your boys buy a bond from them. Do not forget that this organization is chartered by act of Congress and is worthy of recognition in every enterprise of the government.

Do not forget they are your own boys to whose efforts you owe every encouragement and when one comes to you do not turn him away. They are also planning to place receptacles in every school building in Lincoln county for the collection of tinfoil, fruit pits, nut shells and other material for government use in winning the war. No organization in the town and county is doing more to wisely direct the energies of boy life than this and it is deserving of our best consideration.

A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN

Do you know that a beautiful woman always has a good digestion? If your digestion is faulty, eat light food of meats, and take an occasional dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen your digestion. Price 25c.

TIME CHANGES ON 27th

On October 27th the various clocks of the country will be turned back one hour, in accordance with an act of Congress passed some months ago. It is claimed that a great amount of time, fuel, lights, etc., have been saved by turning the clocks an hour ahead in April last, but if anything of the kind has been saved in this section, we have failed to hear about it.

Dr. J. W. Weber, the foot doctor, who has treated hundreds of people in Lincoln and Garrard counties with great success, will take new patients till Oct. 25th. If you suffer with your feet you better see him at once. Consultation and advice free. Office at the Hunn House, Stanford, Ky. 1f

LINCOLN COUNTY IN FRONT

In the "Old Lady's Letter Box" of yesterday I read with interest the letter of Mr. S. Walton Forgy with regard to the keeping of a permanent record in each county of the soldiers and sailors and their valiant deeds in this great war.

The Liberty Service League of Lincoln county, at the beginning of the conflict, caused such a book to be prepared and the name of each man, select or volunteer, has been recorded and sufficient space left under his name to make the individual record of his achievements. There is a standing committee in charge of it, who make it their business that each soldier from the county will have his place in the book, and all that is of historic interest will be recorded and the individual will receive all the credit due him.

Lincoln county has always been proud of her sons and what they have done in all the battles of the nation. Kentucky history contains many of the deeds of such men as our own Gov. Isaac Shelby and Col. William Whitley, the leader of the "Forlorn Hope."

If Mr. Forgy will visit his wife's home county he would find many other good things done by our patriotic organizations for the winning of the war and the welfare of the men who have sent out to fight for that "Democracy that shall not perish from the earth."

T. W. PENNINGTON.
Stanford, Ky.

The above is taken from Sunday's Courier-Journal.

Twelve American submarine chasers played a big part in the recent reduction of the Austrian naval base at Durazzo.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP

Lindsay Rankin sold to J. C. Johnson 15 cattle at 12c.

J. M. Rankin and sons sold 86 hogs to J. C. Johnson for 17c. They averaged 170 pounds.

B. F. Cain bought of Mr. McDonald, of Tennessee, 33 578-pound cattle at 8 cents a pound.

At the sale of W. H. Shanks, Worthington, Minn., an average of $252 was made on the 35 hogs. The top price was $1,200.

W. C. Floyd, of the West End, has sold to E. H. Kidd, of Liberty, 51 acres of land lying on the Hustonville pike, for $10,000.

B. F. Cain sold to W. M. Bright 23 936-pound cattle at 10 1/2 cents a pound, and Mr. Cain also sold to F. W. Jones 20 200-pound hogs at 17 cents a pound.

W. C. Wilkerson has sold his farm on the Springfield pike, just beyond the Mrs. Kate Spalding place, to W. H. Payne. The farm, which is part of the Spalding farm, contains 115 acres and the price paid was $15,000.—Lebanon Enterprise.

R. T. Bruce, of this city, and his brother-in-law, W. B. Turley, of Richmond, will leave tomorrow for Atlanta to attend the Southeastern Georgia Fair, which is in progress there. They have shipped nearly a carload of their fine Kentucky Red Berkshire hogs, with which they "licked the platter clean" at the State fair, and which was offered by the "Gates of the South."

DOING THE COUNTRY OVER

John Feland, a prominent attorney, is dead at Hopkinsville. He was a republican leader.

Twenty-one deaths of soldiers at Camp Zachary Taylor from influenza were reported for the thirty-two hours ending at 6 o'clock last night.

Mobilization of the full forces of the American Red Cross to combat the epidemic of Spanish influenza was determined upon in Washington yesterday.

"Now is the time above all others not to relax his intensify efforts," was the plea of Secretary McAdoo yesterday, commenting on the Liberty Loan drive.

The closing of schools, churches, Sunday schools, theaters and other institutions was ordered at Richmond, Va., after the health authorities had reported 1,600 cases of Spanish influenza there.

Although 25 more deaths of soldiers from Spanish influenza were reported from Camp Zachary Taylor yesterday, base hospital authorities announced that they regarded the situation as less alarming.

The total casualties in the National army in France reported to Oct. 3rd are 40,010, divided as follows: dead 13,253, wounded 21,509, missing in action 5,248. The losses in the marine division are not included in the statement.

THOUGHT HIS TIME HAD COME—DISAPPOINTED

"I never was more surprised in my life than when I took the first dose of Mear's Wonderful Remedy. My stomach trouble had been of eight years' standing, sometimes so bad as to cause convulsions, followed by hemorrhage. I thought my time in this world was short, and believed it the last medicine I would ever take. It is now eight weeks since, and I am feeling better than for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. The Lincoln Pharmacy; The Penny Drug Store.

HUSTONVILLE

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church of Hustonville Sunday morning next, 13th, by Rev. J. E. Clark, of Springfield, when it is hoped that every member of the church will be present.

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season was a "chicken roast" given by Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Rout Tuesday evening in honor of John Hicks, who is home on a furlough. The lunch spread was a most delicious one. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Will Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Will Riffe, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. June Hucker, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Manning of Manchester, Ky; Mrs. James Stephenson, Misses Ella Rigney, Blanche Barnette, Edith Wolburn, Lorne Combest, Anna Hicks, Kate Warriner, Mary Gabbert, Bess Baughman, Elizabeth Stephenson, Mrs. Faelele Myers, of Lexington; Messrs. John Hicks, Roger Hicks, Carl Pearson, George Barnette and Carl Hicks.

Can Now Eat and Sleep in Comfort

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well."

INQUISITION

A mother went into a footwear shop to buy a pair of shoes for her little son, who accompanied her. An assistant came briskly forward, and, learning that shoes were wanted for the boy, looked at feet intently for a moment.

"French kid?" he asked. "Tis none of your business whether he be French or Irish," flashed the mother. "I want a pair of shoes for him."—Pearson's Weekly.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Drop Freezone on a touchy corn, then lift that corn off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! No humbug!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation. Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful!

"Every county in Kentucky has been granted a sugar allotment for October equal to two pounds per capita," Federal Food Administrator Fred M. Sackett says. "This ration will be continued and, no further shortages or surpluses should become manifest anywhere," he continued.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS

The reply of President Wilson to the Austro-German peace proposals will be a rejection. When his answer is delivered the President will act as spokesman not only for the United States Government but also for all the nations allied in the fight against the Central Powers.

The French yesterday captured Berry au Bac, twelve miles north of Rheims, and thereby have brought a further menace to the German line. By an additional advance Laon will be put in a pocket and Neufchâtel menaced. All along the front from the North Sea to Verdun the Allies made inroads into the enemy's line. The British have scored east of Arras and between St. Quentin and Cambrai, while between Rheims and the Meuse the enemy has suffered heavy reverses. In the region north-west of Verdun the Americans made local gains after terrific fighting.

As a result of a number of negroes in Fayette county refusing to work for 25 cents per shock for cutting corn their names will be given to the Fayette Council of Defense and reported to the State council, which may result in their being placed in Class A1 by the draft boards.

Ben M. Warder and wife, of Shelbyville, were killed outright and J. A. Baldwin, also of Shelbyville, was injured when the auto in which they were driving struck a runaway horse.

Economy

Since 1912 both calfskin and sole leather have risen over 100%. All other items that enter into the making of a pair of shoes are higher—some several hundred per cent.

Our advice, in view of this situation, is—pay at least $7.50 to $12 for your shoes. It is true economy.

The satisfaction you get from the better workmanship and materials will justify the expenditure. Come in and see our Crossett models for Fall.

65 Acres Land

In Boyle County

ON THURSDAY, OCT. 17

2:30 O'CLOCK P. M.

This land is located just in the suburbs of the City of Danville, on the Shakertown pike, one mile from the court-house, has a splendid frontage and will be sold in five to ten-acre lots, with one boundary of 25 to 30 acres. It will be so divided and sold as to give prospective purchasers an opportunity to purchase as many acres as they may desire, even to the purchase of the entire tract.

This land is known as a part of the Captain Massey farm, and was recently purchased by Messrs. Robinson, Murphy and Dunn, the present owners. It was bought by them as a speculation and will be put up to the high dollar and sold.

The land has a splendid stock barn, a splendid tobacco barn, a good tenant house, good foundation and cellar, where former house burned, is well watered and also has water rights with pipe laid from the Danville water works. Plenty of fruit and fine shade trees. Beautiful yard and splendid building sites with good frontage for each.

WATCH DAVILLE GROW. What were the real estate values in and close to Danville five years ago? Real estate values will increase in and near Danville in a greater proportion in the next two to five years. Invest in this property and just leave it alone. The enhancement in value will make a large per cent on the investment.

For further particulars inquire of the owners, Frank Robinson, J. Lee Murphy, Walter Dunn, or
